Hanwell recorded their fifth 1-1 draw of the season against Hertford Town but could consider themselves very lucky to have got anything out of the game as Hertford were by far the better side and with any luck would have won in convincing fashion.

On the excellent playing surface, Hertford made a very good start, knocking the ball around with aplomb and as early as the sixth minute, Lee Roberts should have done better than to slice his shot wide with his favoured left foot. Keiran Jimmy, who had an excellent game between our posts, then saved smartly at his near post from an effort by Daryl Mitchell. It was totally against the run of play when we took the lead in the twenty second minute in almost our first meaningful attack of the game. Tashan Francis-Adeyinka was tripped by Hertford's Ron Luya as he moved into the penalty area and Blaise O'Brien made no mistake from the resultant spot kick driving the ball past Louis O'Neill. Minutes later, Francis-Adeyinka should have done better when the ball rebounded to him after a clearance had been charged down but he dragged his shot wide of the far post. Keiran then made a terrific save to deny Attila Korsoveckni after he had shown great individual skill to work himself into a shooting position. An opportunist shot by Daryl Mitchell then hit the top of our crossbar before going behind whilst at the other end from a low corner by Chris Mills, Tashan Bradshaw shot just wide of the near post. On the stroke of half time, Mitchell missed a great chance to equalise for Hertford somehow managing to hit the ball over our bar from point blank range. In the opening minute of the second half we should have gone two ahead when Francis-Adeyinka showing great pace got beyond Hertford's Glenn Draper but then tamely shot straight at O'Neill with the goal at his mercy. Play quickly switched to the other end with a shrewd pass by Mitchell sending Dom Musaffiri free but Keiran blocked his shot with his feet. Korsoveckni then saw his chipped shot drift just wide of the far post with Keiran stranded. As the minutes ticked away, it seemed as if we might hold onto our slender lead with the back line in which Gulad Adan was tremendous standing firm but with ten minutes to go, another shot by Mitchell hit the crossbar and as the ball bounced away, the referee decided that Keiran had fouled Musaffiri as he tried to grab hold of it, Mitchell made no mistake with the penalty kick. With two minutes remaining, Mitchell on the far post crashed a shot past Keiran but the ball hit the underside of the bar and somehow bounced to safety, much to our relief.
